

RABII (YA RAHMAANOU, YAA RAHIIMOU). ENGLISH VERSION

This religious chant (QASIDA) is extracted out of 2 divine attributes:

AL RAHMAANI AL RAHIIM (THE BENEFICENT ! THE COMPASSIONATE)

My Lord has surprised me with divine graces that nourish the spirit,

By the blessing of the greatest among those who seek refuge in Allah

Glory be to Allah, most Generous, the Unique.

Verily, my kernel on this day is filled with resplendent dazzling lights.

God grants me preservation, by the blessing of Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon his family and companions).

I invoke my Lord, the Creator whose abundant graces extends over the totality of all creatures without exception.

I have besought Him throughout the years; He has guided me so generously that I have shaken off all futilities and mundane things.

O the compassionate, grant your compassion to all creatures!

O Yee who bestows protection upon he who reads Your Holy Qu'ran.

Cause your protection to descend upon the community of the Elect, and protect them from any evil,

And grant your mercy to the creature, O Yee who created their ancestor (Adam).

O King of the dominion! O Yee who transcends retaliation,

Show Your mercy upon the creatures, O Yee the Guide, O Yee the Protector.

Thou hath cleanse my heart from worries and annoyances,

By the blessings of the greatest among those who seek refuge in God.
